

I am appalled by Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. I believe this is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation and an obvious abridgement of FCC regulations.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. The proposed airing of openly political propaganda for private purposes, on a publicly funded airwave, without consideration of the public good, is dangerous to the constitution and political process.

Sinclair's actions are unacceptable and the FCC should intervene immediately. Thank you.
